

Our Mission

Development Pool, a socio-economic research and training firm, leverages knowledge to create impact for its clients working in international development, private, public and non-profit sectors. We consider impact as our work's contribution towards spreading innovation, influence on a policy, improvement in efficiency, shaping of a project or enriching public opinion.