

News and Events

1. Development Pool signs up a new study on 'Economic Empowerment of Rural Women' for South Asia Partnership Pakistan, which is based on a nationally representative sample of women home-based workers.
2. Firm's managing partner has been hired by an international agency to conduct trainings of Pakistan's leading political parties to strengthen the in-house policy research and communication processes.
3. Development Pool has recently moved its head office to Islamabad to build a closer liaison with international development partners, non-profits and policy making bodies.
4. Ali Salman, a Think Tank MBAer, has attended the special meeting of the Mont Pelerin Society at Istanbul.